❖ ❖ The Heidelberg Catechism

Lord's Day 41

Q 108: "What does the seventh commandment teach us?"

That all uncleanness is accursed of God:[a] and that therefore we must with all our hearts detest the same,[b] and live chastely and temperately,[c] whether in holy wedlock, or in single life.[d]

a: Leviticus 18:27, Leviticus 18:28

b: Jude 23

c: 1 Thessalonians 4:3, 1 Thessalonians 4:4, 1 Thessalonians 4:5

d: Hebrews 13:4, 1 Corinthians 7:7, 1 Corinthians 7:8, 1 Corinthians 7:9, 1 Corinthians 7:27

Q 109: "Does God forbid in this commandment, only adultery, and such like gross sins?"

Since both our body and soul are temples of the holy Ghost, he commands us to preserve them pure and holy: therefore he forbids all unchaste actions, gestures, words,[a] thoughts, desires,[b] and whatever can entice men thereto.[c] a: Ephesians 5:3, Ephesians 5:4, 1 Corinthians 6:18, 1 Corinthians 6:19, 1 Corinthians 6:20

b: Matthew 5:27, Matthew 5:28

c: Ephesians 5:18, 1 Corinthians 15:33

❖ ❖ Ordinant's Testimony

Greetings, congregation of Covenant Grace Church of Penang. Grace to you, peace, and comfort from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, our Chief Shepherd and Head—who watches over your soul and body to keep you from the evil one. During our ACM, by God's revealed will, I was elected into the office of Elder. As the ordination service is at hand, it is appropriate that I now write my testimony to you about the Lord's providence and guidance to me to stand for election.

It has been over two years (2024-2026) since my family and I became congregational members in CGC. Within a few months into membership, the call to office was extended to me. However, I do not envision myself being an office-bearer back then, especially without sufficient time for my family and I to be part of our spiritual family first. So I do not think I was ready back then. Now, I still do not feel "ready", knowing I am a great sinner saved by grace alone, considering also the great duties of the Presbyter, according to 1 Timothy 3:1-7 and Titus 1:5-16. So what has changed? The difference now, is time. Time for my family and I to know you and be known by you more personally and meaningfully, to have fostered a deeper communal and familial love with each other. My decision to stand for office stems firstly from cherishing the Lord and you, our spiritual family. It compels me to see past my own struggles and weaknesses, to be concerned for the glory of God and the good of the church. For indeed, if I have not love, I am nothing (1 Corinthians 13).

Brothers and sisters, this year we have faced great challenges and difficulties that has caused many of us to be sorrowful and disheartened. Events have escalated the already pressing need for plurality of elders to a critical state. I see also a great need of our church to be grounded in the Gospel, as summed up in the Three Forms of Unity, which is pertinent to unity and conformity. So that God's people in CGC will be healed, edified, and grow through the struggles we have felt by "holding fast the word of life..." (Phil. 2:16). Therefore, I am compelled even more this year to stand for this respective office by the external call of the Lord through His people, to "...set in order the things that are lacking, and appoint elders..." (Titus 1:5). I avail myself willingly, along with not a few elders and ministers (as the Lord shall provide), to be diligent stewards and overseers of the flock by being an example of the Gospel, not as overlords (1 Peter 5:2-4); rejecting errors and refuting those who contradict sound doctrine (1 Tim. 1:3-7); governing the church against disorderly and impenitent persons (Matt. 18:17); and finally, restoring the penitent back to the fellowship of the church (2 Corinthians 7:10).

Please pray for me so that I may serve with the evident fruit of the Spirit, integrity, diligence, wisdom, humility, and the greatest of all, love—so that our church can be nourished and protected by the Chief Shepherd himself, our Lord Jesus Christ.

❖ ❖ Formula of Subscription for Office-Bearers

We, the undersigned ministers, elders, and deacons of the Covenant Grace Church, Penang do hereby sincerely and in good conscience before the Lord, declare by this, our subscription, that we heartily believe and are persuaded that all the articles and points of doctrine, contained in the Confession and Catechism of the Reformed Churches, together with the explanation of some points of the aforesaid doctrine, made by the National Synod of Dordrecht, 1618-'19, do fully agree with the Word of God.

We promise therefore diligently to teach and faithfully to defend the aforesaid doctrine, without either directly or indirectly contradicting the same, by our public preaching or writing.

We declare, moreover, that we not only reject all errors that militate against this doctrine and particularly those which were condemned by the above mentioned synod, but that we are disposed to refute and contradict these, and to exert ourselves in keeping the church free from such errors. And if hereafter any difficulties or different sentiments respecting the aforesaid doctrines should arise in our minds, we promise that we will neither publicly nor privately propose, teach, or defend the same, either by preaching or writing, until we have first revealed such sentiments to the session, presbytery, and synod, that the same may be there examined, being ready always cheerfully to submit to the judgment of the session, presbytery, and synod, under the penalty in case of refusal to be, by that very fact, suspended from our office.

And further, if at any time the session, presbytery, or synod, upon sufficient grounds of suspicion and to preserve the uniformity and purity of doctrine, may deem it proper to require of us a further explanation of our sentiments respecting any particular article of the Confession of Faith, the Catechism, or the explanation of the National Synod, we do hereby promise always to be willing and ready to comply with such requisition, under the penalty above mentioned, reserving for ourselves, however, the right of an appeal, whenever we shall believe ourselves aggrieved by the sentence of the session, presbytery, or synod, and until a decision is made upon such an appeal, we will acquiesce in the determination and judgment already passed.
